2024 COMMUNITY IMPACT REPORT

the family place

Where family violence stops

Since 1978, The Family Place has been a leader in the work to prevent family violence and make every home a safe home. Our mission and vision to empower survivors strengthen not only individuals and families but also the community as a whole. I’m proud of the impact The Family Place achieves every day to save lives and transform futures.”

—Harold Ginsburg,
Chairman of the Board

Leading the Way

Every Friday, I write a note to our staff addressed to (The) Family (Place) because the people here truly are a family. Many of us, survivors ourselves, look to one another for love and support as we take on the difficult work of helping survivors escape abuse and start new lives. Our board of directors is a part of this family as well. They are fully engaged, working to ensure The Family Place’s strength and stability. Our chairman Harold Ginsburg and I have both served The Family Place for the last decade, as the agency has grown into the largest family violence service provider in the state. Looking to the future, we have a mantra—to be not only the biggest, with nearly 200 employees, but also the best.

Our number-one goal is for The Family Place to be the premier provider of domestic violence services in the nation and a training ground for domestic violence professionals. We have a truly dedicated, talented team that I am fully confident will help us reach this goal. As an agency, we will continue to define our values, our brand, and our strategic plan to get there. All of our teams are contributing to this principal goal—Development raising funds, Marketing promoting the agency, Finance ensuring we are a faithful steward of funds, Operations keeping our 170,000 square feet of facilities safe and clean, People Services supporting our talented employees, and Programs providing lifesaving and life-changing direct services 24 hours a day, seven days a week to more than 40,000 individuals a year.

Another key goal for 2024 is to foster a culture of accountability, where every employee feels heard and connected to our mission. That accountability extends to our volunteers and partners, with our promise to use the dollars we are entrusted with wisely.

Reaching these goals requires each of us to show up every day with a heart for the mission and a passion for this work. I am so proud of the strong, creative, and resilient people at The Family Place who are helping survivors find a path from fear and hopelessness to safety and success. I’m also grateful for the generous donors and volunteers who support The Family Place. You are vital to our future. As you read this 2024 Community Impact Report, you will see the difference we make together and hear from the survivors you are helping thrive.

Thank you for making The Family Place where family violence stops.

Sincerely,

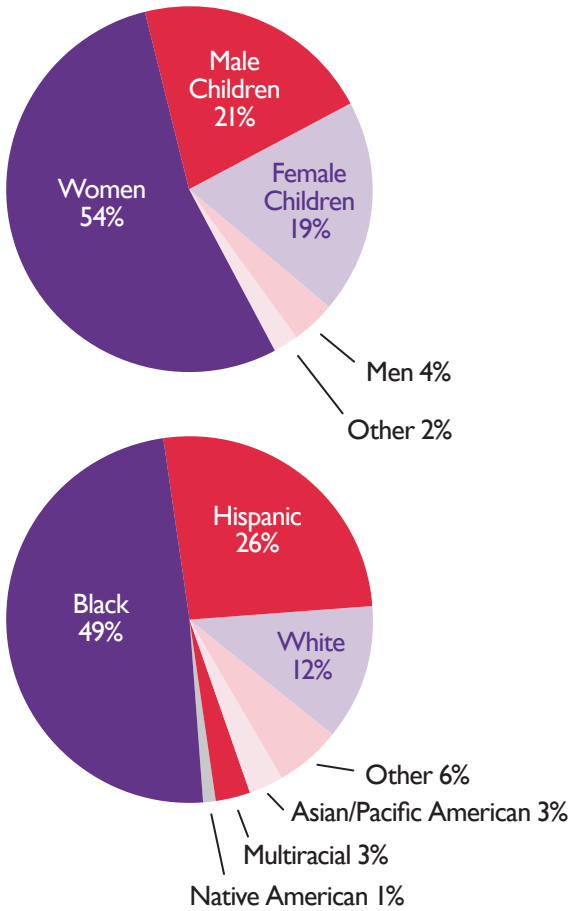

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Tiffany Tate-McDaniel'.

Tiffany Tate-McDaniel, LCSW-S
Board Approved Supervisor
Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer
